VINTAGE SELECTION

The pride of German winemakers

It's not the most surprising thing when a new bar opens in trendy Glockenbachviertel. The main attractions at Vintage Selection, however, aren't the newest gin or whisky creations, but rather specialties from Baden, Franconia or the Palatinate region.

Visitors at this all-in-one wine bar and shop should prepare to be convinced of German vino's steadily increasing calibre, and don't be afraid to ask the competent young owner, Marian Kreuzer, for his expert advice.
